

Wherever you are, there are simple things you can do to help create a more beautiful environment for yourself and others to live in.

Like simply not doing things that make our environment less attractive — littering, for example.

Of course you could do a bit more than that — say, plant a flower, or ride a bicycle to work.

Or you could go all out and join or start an environmental group.

There are a lot of things you could do to help us keep Ontario beautiful. Read on for some suggestions. Try them. It's fun. Then think up some more. Do your own thing. Around the home.

- Use low-phosphate detergents

- Turn off taps - don't waste water

- Turn off switches - don't waste electricity

 Discard paints properly, solvents, gas, oil and other chemicals — don't pour them down the drain

Use quiet machinery and appliances — keep noise pollution down

 Use pesticides and herbicides only when necessary, and then sparingly

- Return soft drink bottles

- Plant a flower, tree, shrub

- Compost leaves (and other household wastes) - don't burn them

- Use organic fertilizer

- Buy refills, shun disposables

- Take a shopping basket or bag to the grocery store, avoid excess packaging

 Keep your garbage down - recycle, re-use bags, other containers

Have your furnace checked every year –
it's safer, cleaner, and cheaper that way

 Burn 'clean' fuel in your fireplace (wet wood or coal burns poorly, smokes a lot) On your way to . . .

 Shut off your engine when you don't need it — an idling engine doesn't get you anywhere, pollutes, and costs you money

- Keep your car engine well tuned - it starts

 Ask your gas station attendant for a lowlead fuel

 Be sure all pollution control devices on your car are in good working order

 Fight noise pollution – be sure your muffler muffles

Use your car horn only when you really need to Carry a litterbag – don't throw trash out of the car window

- Form or join a car pool

 Leave your car at home – don't take it downtown

- Meet people - use public transportation

- Ride a bicycle to work, to shop

- Wall

- Have a happy day
